

TAMPA BAY CREEKSHED

Mapping the human and natural stories that drain into the Bay

- 1 Lake Rogers
Sheree L. Greer seeks out beautiful Black nature and the legacies of segregation.
- 2 Ybor Channel
Pedro el Poeta recovers Tampa's Latino foundations.
- 3 Gandy Beach
Julie Buckner Armstrong crosses the bay with a civil rights legend.
- 4 Booker Creek
Gary Mormino reflects upon shell middens and Florida foodways.
- 5 John's Pass
Thomas Hallock mourns an untimely death on Treasure Island.
- 6 Lake Maggiore
Historian Jack E. Davis water skis a polluted lake.
- 7 Frenchman's Creek
Amanda Hagood reflects on hidden landscapes and aging.
- 8 Egmont Key
Singer-songwriter Rita Youngman chronicles Tampa Bay's overlooked Seminole past.
- 9 Terra Ceia Bay
Diane Roberts mourns the destruction of Native architecture.
- 10 Corkscrew Swamp
Poet Tyler Gillespie road trips with a Swamp Monster.
- 11 Clewiston
Poet Gloria Muñoz reminds us that water and flowers are what we hold onto.

